SMALL THINGS, BIG DIFFERENCE

Celebrating 30 Years of Bringing Joy to Students

This year, One Dollar Only turns 30. As I look back on this journey, I'm amazed at how far we've come - and humbled by where it all started.

Where It All Began - Thirty years ago, I was lugging boxes of $1 stationery to school roadshows, setting up in staff lounges during Children's Day season. Teachers told me what their students loved, what worked in classrooms, what made kids' faces light up. That's where I learnt the business - in staff lounges across Singapore, listening to educators who cared deeply about their students.

You were our first believers when we were nobody, and that trust changed everything.

What Schools Taught Us - Serving schools made us who we are today. Yes, we've grown - we now work with major corporations, MNCs, government agencies, hotels, and banks. But the foundation came from you.

Schools taught us what really matters: attention to details, understanding what people need, and showing up when it counts. These lessons shaped how we serve everyone else.

Memories That Last Generations - A parent shows us a gift their child kept from primary school, carefully preserved. A young teacher tells me they remember receiving our gifts as students themselves.

This year, my daughter started Primary 1 and came home with her first National Day gift - a simple puzzle cube. Watching her excitement reminded me why this work matters.

We're not just selling products - we're part of memories that span lifetimes.

Our Heart and Foundation - Through all our growth, schools have remained our constant. Thank you for trusting us with your Children's Days, National Days, and graduations. Thank you for thirty years of bringing smiles to students.

Giving Back - As we celebrate this milestone, we're stepping up our commitment. We're donating a portion of our profits to worthy causes and sponsoring community initiatives.

For our educators, we're offering educational supplies and Teachers' Day gifts at near cost. It's our way of saying thank you.

Building the Next Decade Together - More than just a vendor, we want to be a genuine partner to the education community - through CSR initiatives, supporting school programmes, and finding new ways to give back together.

What does the education community need that we're not providing yet? How can we support educators beyond just supplying gifts?

If you have thoughts or ideas, please reach out to me directly. You've been part of this journey - and I'd be honoured if you'd help shape where we go next.

Thank you for an incredible three decades.
